Art Unit: 3634

1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claims 1,4,6-15 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being clearly anticipated by Cooper.

Cooper discloses a guide rail 32, a slide 22 having a braking element 24, grip 14 connected by a swivel pin to sliding segment 20, support element 18 supported on the guide rail to force the braking element into the braking groove 28,30.

2. Claim 16 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being clearly anticipated by Webb. Webb discloses a slide 14 having a braking element 30 which pivots in a groove of guide rail 16,18 for selective movement therein.

3. Claims 2,3,5 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

4. The following prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure: Van Klompenburg, Selje, Schaap, Henkenjohann.
